BRINGING THE BEST TOGETHER

General Registration Policy

1. GENERAL AVAILABILITY REGISTRATION POLICY

This General Availability Registration Policy ("Policy") of Boston Ivy (the "Registry") is to be read together with other Registry policies related both to the launch and ongoing administration and management of the Boston Ivy top-level domains ("TLDs") and the Registrant Agreement. All words and phrases used in this Policy shall have the same meaning attributed to them above or in the Registrant Agreement unless otherwise specified or the context clearly otherwise requires.

Please note that the Registry may modify this Policy from time to time effective upon thirty (30) days' notice by the Registry to interested parties including sponsoring registrars. Such changes will be available on the Registry websites* at or such other URL as the Registry may designate, which shall satisfy all notice requirements set forth in this Policy. After the notice period expires, each time a user accesses or uses the Services, the then effective General Availability Registration Policy will bind the user.

PLEASE READ THIS POLICY CAREFULLY. BY ACCESSING OR USING THE SERVICES, THE READER EXPRESSLY AGREES TO BE BOUND BY THE TERMS DESCRIBED HEREIN AND ALL TERMS INCORPORATED BY REFERENCE. IF THE READER DOES NOT AGREE TO ALL OF THESE TERMS, DO NOT USE THE SERVICES.

1.1. General Availability Overview

After the close of the Sunrise period, the TLD will be open for registration of Domain Names at June 18th 00:00 UTC through Registrars on a first-come, first-served basis, subject to the Registry Policies and ICANN requirements. All available Domain Names will be open for such registration. The general availability phase will not have an ending date. Please check the Registry Websites* for the dates and times of General Availability for each string.

1.2. Scope and Eligibility

An Applicant may submit registrations via Accredited Registrars for any available Domain Names, meaning names that have not been (a) blocked, reserved or restricted by the Registry, or (b) registered, awarded, or otherwise allocated prior to commencement of the General Availability Phase.

1.3. Registration

In the General Availability Phase, available Domain Names will be registered by an Accredited Registrar submitting an Applicant's registration for an available Domain

Name. The Registry will create (or modify as the case may be) a Domain Name registration if the following conditions are met:

- (i) the Domain Name meets the requirements set forth in the Registry's General Domain Name Registration Policy;
- (ii) the Domain Name and the information contained in the Registrar's request meet the requirements in the Registry-Registrar Agreement;
- (iii) the applied-for Domain Name is available for registration;
- (iv) the required Domain Registration Fees have been paid to the sponsoring Registrar; and
- (v) the sponsoring Registrar is in good standing with the Registry.

1.4. Fees

The only fee that may be collected during the General Availability Phase is the Domain Registration fee as fixed by the sponsoring Registrar.

1.5. Renewal Fees

The renewal price for Domain Names registered during General Availability will be set by the applicable Registrar sponsoring the Domain Name at the time of renewal. Renewal grace periods and other terms of renewal are fixed by the Registrant Agreement as well as the Registry's standard Domain Name Registration Policy which can be found on the Registry Websites* or such other URL as the Registry may designate for its Registry Policies.

1.6. General Availability Dispute Policy

The Registry will not participate in any way in any dispute between Domain Name Applicants and any party. Rather, all other disputes between Applicants and any third party shall be resolved between the applicable Applicants and such other party through any court, arbitration or other proceeding that may be available to those parties. At such time as a Domain Name has been registered and allocated to a Registrant, the Registry's Dispute Resolution Policy will govern all disputes between the Applicant and third parties thereafter. Said Dispute Resolution Policy can be found on the Registry websites or such other URL as the Registry may designate for its Registry Policies.

1.7. The Registry's Rights regarding General Availability Applications and Registrations

The Registry reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to deny, cancel, modify or transfer any Domain Name registration or transaction, or place any Domain Name(s) or other transactions on Registry lock, hold or similar status (i) to protect the integrity and stability of the Registry's systems; (ii) to comply with any applicable laws, government rules or requirements, requests of law enforcement, ICANN Policies or Registry Policies, or any dispute resolution process; (iii) during the resolution of a dispute; (iv) to avoid any liability, civil or criminal, on the part of the Registry, as well as its affiliates, subsidiaries, officers, directors, and employees; (v) in respect of the Registry only, for violations of the Registry-Registrar agreement between the applicable Registrar and the Registry (for example, non-payment of fees) including, without limitation, any exhibits, attachments, or schedules thereto; (vi) to correct mistakes made by the Registry in connection with a Domain Name registration; (vii) following an occurrence of any of the prohibited activities described in violation of the Registry's Anti-Abuse/Acceptable Use Policy, or (viii) as otherwise provided for by the Registrant's Registrant Agreement. Furthermore, the Registry reserves the right at any time, to verify (ix) the truth, accuracy, and completeness of any information provided by the Registrant to the Registry, whether directly, through a Registrar or otherwise; and (x) the compliance by the Registrant with the applicable Registry Policies. Registrants agree to fully comply and cooperate with the Registry in connection with such verification and furnish all available documentation as the Registry may reasonably require to complete the verification.
